

Renée Hill Carter

Award Winning Author, Soul Care Provider, Minister, Grief and Loss Specialist

Renée is the author of the book and MasterClass, What About Me? Staying Healthy and Whole While You're Helping Others emphasizing holistic soul-self-care of spirit, soul, and body. In addition, her award winning anthology, A Good Work Begun (Xulon Press Christian Award Winner) is described by a judge of the 24th Annual Writer's Digest Self-Published Book Awards, as "inspiring poetry that seeks to help the reader open their heart to the pleasures and pains that define human life-a life that we can live richly if we perceive and appreciate with the kind of focus that these poems encourage."

Renée has written articles for Lifeway Christian Resources and for the AVAIL Journal, a quarterly Leadership magazine for leaders in business and ministry. Her article "Lose & Be Well" is featured in the Winter 2023 edition. She was a guest on the AVAIL Podcast Episode 136, "The Surgery of Soul Care".
